

Contact:

Michelle DuBord, Executive Director

262-955-1765 office / 262-719-3644 cell or Director@wgf-waukesha.org

Women and Girls Fund board adds four new directors

WAUKESHA (January 28, 2022) – The Women and Girls Fund of Waukesha County (WGF) has elected four new members to three-year terms on its Board of Directors.

They are:

- Tracy Josetti of New Berlin, director of donor philanthropy at Marquette University High School. An accomplished fundraising professional, she is a former WGF board member, former interim WGF executive director and current member of the WGF Fund Development and Women of Distinction Luncheon committees. Josetti is an active member of several community organizations, including TEMPO Milwaukee and the Waukesha County Business Alliance.

- Heather Nino of Franklin, a director and senior sales consultant at BMO Harris Bank in Milwaukee. She is a board member of the Wisconsin Association of Financial Professionals and a volunteer for the Milwaukee and Racine chapters of Junior Achievement of Wisconsin. She is a current member of the WGF Grants Committee.

- Marcia Rupp of Waukesha, manager of volunteer services for ProHealth Care. She is a board member and chair of the Strategic Planning Committee of the Waukesha YMCA and a board member of the Wisconsin Association of Directors of Volunteer Services. She is current member of the WGF Grants and Women of Distinction Luncheon committees. She is a graduate of the Waukesha County Business Alliance's Leadership Waukesha program and an active community volunteer.

- Jennifer Thompson Davies of the town of Genesee, an attorney and former business law instructor at Carroll University and a former judicial law clerk for District II of the Wisconsin Court of Appeals. She is co-chair of the Advisory Board for Family Service of Waukesha and has been active in several area nonprofit organizations. She is a current member of the WGF Grants Committee.

The WGF, established in 2004, seeks to aid and enrich the lives of women and girls so they become thriving residents of their communities. The WGF annually awards grants to nonprofit organizations that support projects and programs that promote the health, education, well-being and empowerment of women and girls of all ages.

###